Andrew "Andy" Cadman

APR 27, 1959 - AUG 28, 2013

Andy J. Cadman, age 54, of North Ridgeville, passed away at his home on August 28, 2013 after a short illness.

Andy was born in Elyria and has lived in North Ridgeville for the past 3 years, moving from Florida, where he has spent the past 30 years.

He worked as a concrete mason and finisher for the Broward and Dade Trowel and Trade Union in Florida. He also owned the Paul Revere Concrete Pumping Company. His work took him to the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, St. Thomas and Connecticut, in addition to his home state of Florida.

Andy enjoyed spending his time fishing, and watching the Cleveland Browns and Indians.

He is survived by his sister Darlene (Charles) Stiles of LaGrange; brothers Harry (Dee) Cadman of North Ridgeville, Timothy (Pam) Cadman of LaGrange, Jeffrey Cadman of Florida and Jim (Sandy) Cadman of North Ridgeville; step-children Jamie and Jessica; 4 grandchildren; many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents Harry Sr. and Myrtle (nee Mifflin) Cadman. A celebration of Andy's life will take place on his birthday, Sunday, April 27 from 2-4 p.m. at North Ridgeville's South Central Park, Pavilion 1, 7565 Avon Belden Road, North Ridgeville.

Andy was, indeed, the cute guy in high school. All the girls liked to be around him. He was cool. He was well liked by most everyone and it seems that he remained charming, fun and easy to make smile. He was a dynamic young man, as I remember. My sympathy to those who knew and loved him.

I love you Andy, to be absent from body is to be present with the Lord, and though we will all miss you, and my warmest, sincere love goes out to all your family, I know that you are in the place we all long to be...With our Lord, and Savior Jesus Christ.Thank you for your brotherly love, looking out for me when I didn't deserve it, taking care of me, teaching me a valuable lesson in forgiveness, one second only to the cross.We'll see you soon. Real soon.

I love you Andy. I am deeply saddened by this news. It was so nice to surprise you in 2009 walking on your porch while you were standing there. God as you and I have always said, is amazing in all his workings. You will never be forgotten Andy. We had many talks about God, and I know you are in peace. I will see you again Andy....next time on God's porch. Thank you for touching my heart in this life. You made my year 1977 in Ohio so very special. Love to all the wonderful Cadman's, my prayers to all of you during this difficult time of having to say goodbye to the baby of the family...."Andy"

Andy "Poppi" Cadman, what an incredible man you were. I want to thank you for raising James the right way and instilling all of your wonderful qualities in him, for teaching him the importance of hard work, determination, respect, and integrity. All things you were known and loved for. I am so glad you came and spent time with us last December. The grandbabies had a blast and so did James and I. You will be severely missed! You were an amazing Father (and Father-In-Law) We love you very much and will honor your memory at every opportunity. - Brittani

I was just asking about Andy a few weeks ago. Fond memories of him in School. I remember going roller skating with him and his brothers Jeff and Jim in the van! He was one of the "cute" boys in school while skating the girls wanted to skate by him in case they fell. Sounds so silly now but we were very young.....Sounds like your life was full Andy R I P

RIP Andy. You were a good friend. I still remember you me and Tony cruising to the bowling alley every Sat night to find bing bong so he could buy us a case of Colt 45. I remember we called it "company policy". We were under 21 and they only sold you 3.2% beer in those days. Those were good times.
