Winifred Smick

OCT 11, 1939 - MAY 3, 2013

Winifred A. "Winnie" Smick, age 73, of North Ridgeville, passed away on Friday morning, May 3, 2013 at Ames Family Hospice House, Westlake. Winnie was born October 11, 1939 in Cleveland to the late George Weiss and Irene Weiss Weaver. She married Charles J. Smick, Jr. on May 6, 1961 and they moved to North Ridgeville in 1969.

Mrs. Smick was a bus driver for North Ridgeville Schools for 25 years. She was a member of St. Julie Billiart Catholic Church in North Ridgeville and was an active part of the church choir for 35 years. Winnie was a member of the North Ridgeville Senior Center where she regularly played Mahjong. She also enjoyed watching performing arts and movies with her husband, casino gambling trips, and Tai Chi. Winnie will be lovingly remembered for her strong will and her loving and compassionate heart.

Her youngest son, Eddie Smick, preceded her in death.

A memorial Mass will be celebrated at 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, May 8, 2013 at St. Julie Billiart Church, 5500 Lear Nagle Road, North Ridgeville, where the family will receive guests beginning at 9:00 a.m. Burial will follow at St. Peter's Cemetery, North Ridgeville.

Thank you for all your help and encouragement you gave me when you trained me to drive a School Bus many years ago. I'm going to miss talking to you at the grocery store. God Bless you and make room for me in Heaven.

I remember Winnie from Palmer Field. She always had a smile. My son had her as a bus driver, she was so good to the kids. God give the family strength in the days ahead

So sorry for your loss. My mother, Shirley Pluta, drove bus with Winnie and always had such nice things to say about her. May you all find the strength you need to get through this very hard time.
