To the Kramers - We will pray that you can find the strength to make it through this ordeal. We too lost our son, Mark Borsz (22), another St. Peter's graduate that left so soon. Take each day at a time. The pain will stay with you, but your faith will comfort you as time goes on. Know that she's in heaven with our son. Sincerely - The Borsz family

Hearing of Kelly's passing was one of the toughest stories I've heard in a very long time. However, seeing the reception of family and friends at her service gave my faith much needed strength. That kind of turn out reminds me that she was indeed called Home, and you could almost feel her smile as the sun beamed this afternoon. She is definitely with Him now. I pray for her family and army of friends. She will surely be missed, but never forgotten.RIP, Red!Arthur G. SW Family Member and Friend

Kelly would roll her eyes and smile one more time as I remember her around 2 years old running around the house naked after getting out of the bath tub. But mostly I will always carry in my heart her beautiful smile and sparkling eyes that I recently saw at the family reunion less than two weeks ago. Until we're together again.....

I had the pleasure of being a part of the EC Women's Soccer family that Kelly helped to make a blast! No matter what, she always had a smile on her face and was always encouraging everyone. I loved how she supported my two sisters and the entire team. She was such a bright, wonderful person to be around. Her attitude was inspirational and her hilariousness made everything way too much fun. I feel lucky to have spent any time with such a beautiful person during her time here and I'm grateful to her family for sharing her with us. I can't imagine the hard time the family is going through and I'm praying for all of you. Love to all of Kelly's friends and family!

Kelly was one of the first people at Elyria Catholic to make me smile. Transferring my junior year to a new school and not knowing anyone, she introduced herself with a huge smile in chemistry class. From that day on, not a pass in the hallway went unacknowledged. She was a bright, fun loving person with a magnetic energy! You will be missed Kelly, but your smile will shine forever!
