Barbara A. Hrobat

DEC 2, 1945 - SEP 18, 2014

Barbara A. Hrobat (nee Miller), age 68, of Elyria, passed away Thursday, September 18, 2014 at Ames Family Hospice House, in Westlake, following a long and very brave battle with Breast Cancer. Barb was originally diagnosed with Breast Cancer in the fall of 2001 and was cancer free for 11 years before being diagnosed with metastatic Breast Cancer in the summer of 2012.

She was born in Cleveland and had been a resident of Elyria for the past 10 years, moving from North Ridgeville.

Barb worked as an Administrative Assistant for Forest City Management in Cleveland and United Consumer in Westlake. However, the job she enjoyed the most was caring for her family and husband. She was an amazing cook, a wonderful hostess and a creative soul. Most of all she was beautiful, wonderful wife, mother and grandmother.

She was a member of St. Jude's Church in Elyria; former member of St. Peter Church in North Ridgeville, where she volunteered with BINGO and was a Girl Scout leader.

She was an Auxiliary Member of Elyria's United Polish Club.

She also was involved with the Red Hat Society, where she was the Queen Mother in Dunedin, Florida.

She enjoyed sewing, crafts, camping, painting, gardening, boating, reading, baking and was an avid bike rider. But most of all, she enjoyed spoiling her grandchildren.

Survivors include her husband of 50 years, Joseph Sr.; daughters, Kathryn Lynn (John) Kordeleski of Amherst, Amanda "Amy" (Dale) Lowrie of Elyria; sons, Joseph J. (Denise) Hrobat Jr. and Mark (Michelle) Hrobat both of North Ridgeville; grandchildren, Heather (Shawn), Connor, Annie, Rachal, Gavan, Logan, Luke and Cole; 4 great-grandchildren; brother, Kenneth (Fay) Miller of Longwood, Florida; sister-in-law, Donna Miller; brother-in-law, Vince (Gwen) Hrobat; sister-in-law, Maryann (Chuck) Mackey; many nieces, nephews, friends and family.

Obituary

Barbara A. Hrobat

DEC 2, 1945 - SEP 18, 2014

She was preceded in death by her infant daughter, Karen; parents, Gus and Helen Miller; brother, Richard B. Miller.

She will be forever missed by all.

Friends may call Sunday from 2-6PM at Bogner Family Funeral Home, 36625 Center Ridge Road, North Ridgeville. A prayer service will be held on Monday at 8:30AM followed by a 9AM Mass at St. Jude's, 590 Poplar St., Elyria. Rev. Frank Kosem will be the Celebrant.

Private burial will be at St. Joseph Cemetery, Avon.

Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of the Western Reserve, Ames Family Hospice, 30080 Hospice Way, Westlake, OH 44145.

My Mom - The Teacher Things happen for a reason. That's what they say. But when you lose someone to cancer, it's hard to feel that way. Terrible, nasty cancer, a disease full of fear and pain. Leaves me searching...grasping for the answer - 'What lesson will I gain?' Truth is...she's taught me all along, the lessons, of love and life, to help me carry on. Here's what I've learned...From moment one, a mother's love is unconditional and has no end. Her heart just grows and grows ~ She becomes your biggest supporter & dearest friend. Marriage is a journey, not a point in time. Grow with it, fight for it, nurture it with a careful hand & let your love for one another shine. Be generous & kind, welcome friends with open arms. Let people remember your sincerity, not just your witty charms. Live in the present, look forward to the future, let go of the bad of the past. NEVER give up! Treasure every moment, live each like it's the last. Last, not least, love God. Make him the center of your family, the center of your home. He will give you grace, welcome you in heaven and greet you at his throne. She was a strong, beautiful person, but most of all a wonderful mother. She lived her life this way and I treasure these lessons above all others. Thank you Mom, I miss you terribly ~ I love you always.

Mrs. Hrobat was my 3rd mother as I was growing up in North Ridgeville, Ohio. I can tell you she was great at cutting my hair, cooking, taught me how to fold clothes for a trip, treated me like one of her own, but the memory which I will always cherish is her perpetual smile. Her life mattered to me and I have benefited from having known her.

I have just received the sad news of my cousin Barbara's passing, this is truly a sad day for me as I loved her so. She had so courageously been in the battle of her life, but you would never had known it. With that big smile & always upbeat attitude that was classic Barbara! For all of the people that she touched over her lifetime, we are better for that, because she was a very special Lady. Barbara is now in a better place next to the lord, she will be so missed here, but never forgotten. I am sure we will all gather again for the big reunion that Barbara is now at, waiting and planning with that beautiful smile upon her face. Rest well & in peace Barbara, my cousin, my friend.Marty krol

To all the Hrobat family: What a wonderful wife & mother Barb was! She was also an amazing cousin to Steve & me! Even though we don't see you as often as we'd wished, Barb was always interested in everything that Steve, Maegan & I were doing. Her vitality, energy & sweetness was boundless! One of the fondest memories Steve & I have is when Barb & Joe came to visit Bud Enders (Steve's dad; Barb's uncle) in the hospital in Tampa 2 1/2 years ago; the four of us sat for hours in the waiting room sharing stories of their mutual grand-parents & childhoods; it was so much fun & we completed raided the vending machines that afternoon. All the family reunions were special because of our very special cousin!:) We love you all & prayers & positive energy coming your way from us always. Sydney & Steve Enders Denver, Colorado

Barb was a sweet blond curly haired little girl when I first met her with the rest of the Enders family in 1952. What a wonderful family I became a member of when I married Barb's Uncle Bud. How special each of our nieces & nephews were to us. Barb has always been so positive through all of these years & a joy to be around. There was always a smile & a fine time to be had when Barb & Joe were expected at any family event & there were many! Barb, we'll miss you always & will keep you close in that special corner in our hearts that is Love & Memory. Much love to all our Hrobat Family Aunt Lee (Mary Lee Enders)
