Andrew M Hanchosky

FEB 6, 1934 - JAN 12, 2015

Andrew M. Hanchosky, age 80, of Homerville, passed away on Monday, January 12, 2015, at the home of his daughter.

He was born in Latrobe, Pennsylvania and had been a resident of Homerville since 2007. He previously lived in Ruggles for 11 years and North Ridgeville for 40 years.

Andrew worked as a millwright for Ford Motor Company for 20 years at the Brookpark Foundry, retiring in 1996. He had also worked as a carpenter with Del Lumber in Elyria and Great Lakes Sash and Door Co. in Cleveland.

He was a member of Bethel Baptist Church in Savannah, and a former member of Sugar Ridge Baptist Church in North Ridgeville, where he was in charge of the building project to construct the fellowship hall.

He enjoyed hunting, fishing, gardening, singing, visiting nursing homes, traveling and spending time with his grandchildren.

Survivors include his sons, William (Alice) of Harpersfield, Jerry of North Ridgeville; daughter, Andrea "Amy" (Jim) Morris of Homerville; 10 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; brothers, Bobby of Cleveland, Donnie of Clendenin, West Virginia and sister, Betz Nosse of Sheffield.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Norma Jean in 2008; father, Andrew, mother, Joann Batteiger and brothers, Charlie, Frank and Richie.

Friends may call Thursday from 4-8PM at the Bogner Family Funeral Home, 36625 Center Ridge Rd., North Ridgeville. Services will be held on Friday at 11 AM in the funeral home.

Rev. John Bouquet will officiate.

Burial will be in Resthaven Memory Gardens, Avon.

Thank you Tompkins family!! Your prayers were evident in that the funeral service, friends/family, and message were all awesome, encouraging, blessing to everyone. Dad and his Lord Jesus were honored. Today he is singing a new song -perhaps Uncle Leland is picking the tune- and free of that diseased body. Bless you all. Sincerely, Bill Hanchosky and Family

My prayers are with All Of you. Andy and I had our thing we would do everytime I would see him. I would ask Where is his white socks he would lift his pant leg up and we would just smile. He was a wonderful caring person to all he met. He will always be in my thoughts and prayers. I know Him and Jean are always going to be with All of you. Hugs for all of you

Thank you for sharing that. He always liked being around people and enjoyed you very much. Today he is with it, healthy and able to sing praise to The Father, Son and Holy Ghost, from whom all blessings flow. "Let not your heart be troubled" see and read John Chapter 14 to be blessed and prepared as we run this race called life. I know Dad would want all of his friends and family to "finish well" too. Sincerely, Bill Hanchosky

Thank you Sandy thats nice to hear. Mom thought he looked like Paul Newman but Como isnt so bad a comparison either.Yes- today they sing a new song together in the heaven that Christ Jesus went to prepare for all who believed him . See John Chapter 14 to be blessed and ready; that is if you're not already! Sincerely Bill Hanchosky

Thank you so much for thinking of us. The long goodbye is over! In heaven he is singing a new song free of suffering. Our family had good lives here for which we are grateful; but beyond here, there is an amazing place waiting to receive us built by Christ Jesus. See John Chapter 14 to be blessed and ready-that is if you're not already ready. Sincerely, Bill Hanchosky and Family.

Hi John, Thank you for writing this. Yes he loved working for the Fords and especially loved working with his crew of guys. He took his work responsibilities seriously and he simply loved to work, to solve problems and to work on projects. His work ethic was amazing and I could never keep up with him even on my best days. In heaven he;s probably doing a punch list of some sort..haha!! See John chapter 14 to be blessed, ready and to think about what Dad is doing today "at Work" . Sincerely Bill Hanchosky and Family.

Betty Drennen lit a candle in honor of Andrew.

I remember Andy from Sugar Ridge Baptist Church where we attended for many years. Andy was such a kind and soft spoken man. He is in the arms of our loving Savior now, walking those streets of gold and enjoying all Heaven has to offer. He & Norma are surely shouting praises to the Lord!!!! May God provide comfort and wisdom to the family in the days that lie ahead. Even tho, their earthly body is gone, you have your memories to keep you smiling.
