I remember visiting my Aunt Mary and going to the park with my cousins in Elyria. The highlight of the visits were the huge stack of comic books on the stair, we were very into comics back then. Joan Grabenstetter

Bob was always generous to his young Grabenstetter cousins. He let us read his comic books when we visited, so the grownups could visit without putting a watch on us. When he was working at the Elyria Dairy Queen, he would let us in the back door sometimes. God bless you and keep you, Bob, and all the Menner family.
