She always smiled. She was a beautiful person. We will miss her. She took my Mom, sister and her brother in law in when my sister was siick. So she could go to hospital out there.

Loretta adopted me in her family many many years ago and she always treat me like one of the boys. We shared many moments together talking about our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Mom you'll always be in my thoughts and prayers and I know you'll always be with me. Love, your Adopted Son, Kenny Tester
