Went and seen you today BUBBY. I had a good visit I miss you so much, it's to bad I didn't have just one more day with you. It's to bad we never really had a heart to heart conversation, if we had I would have told you how important you were in my life, you were my older brother whobi admired and looked up to and wish I were like you, still today I wish I were more like you. Bubby you were so much fun and really lived in not sure if I can say that about myself I want to but don't know how wish you were here for me to hang out with. I love and miss you so much I will see you someday and that's when our journey of fun will begin. Have a good day in heaven and I'll have a ggod day on earth until we meet again.xxoo

Bubby I miss you so much everyday I think of all the memeories we had. And wish we were still creating them, just don't seem like we created enough. I wish we didn't have to grow up and have responsibilities it's to bad we couldn't go through life without worries and didn't have to watch our time slip by...oh yeah you were still like a 16 year old trapped in a 50 year olds body, you were one of the very few that lived life to the fullest, I wish I were more like you in that way. I miss you so much I love you so much. You were the best brother I could have I was for sure and still am lucky to say you are my brother.

We lived on Case Ave. and my brother used to lock me in his closet (his buddy's too) and they would say Jimmy Kuntz iguana was going to get me. He loved to pick on me. One day he'll be able to pick on me again.

I remember when my brother first met Becky boy did I not like her. I thought she was taking my Bubby away from me. I was so mad because I thought he forgot my birthday because of her, next thing you know he brings me a lifesize poster of Jon Bon Jovi I was so excited. Ofcourse he wouldn't forget about his Bubs birthday. He loved me and I sure did love him. Forever and always.

A memory that we always talked and laughed about is when cj was about 2 or 3 years old and my dad and him would wrestle around on the bed and one of them would pretend that they were dying and they would say 'need milk' and they'd put their thumb in each others mouth and they'd be all better. If only it took a some 'milk' to bring to bring back our dad.

I will never forget the memory when my dad and his friends and I were riding around on the boat and there was a lot of water getting in the boat and then all of the sudden we were sinking and we all jumped off the boat and someone in another boat came to rescue me and my dad was jealous because I had the boat with all the hot girls. I love you dad. P.S. I will never forget you calling me "Punk" or "Pumpkin"

A memory that keeps popping up in my head is...When I was younger and we lived in Avon. It was a snowy day and we had a canoe, a snowmobile, and plenty of fun lol. Knowing my dad I'm sure you know where this is headed haha. So we attached that mobile and canoe with some rope, Dad or someone drove the snowmobile and my sis, mom (and a couple other friends that I can't exactly remember) got in that freaking canoe and had the time of our life. And that's what my dad was all about. The life of the party. It's hard to believe your gone dad. I love you so much. ?

Second memory when Bubby traveled for work and he was fine for a few weeks he came to my school (about the 4th grade) and came to my classroom, took me out of school early, then we walked all the way to the trout park in Elyria to go fishing one of the best days ever. I will always be my Bubbys Bub, it will just be different w/o him.

So how can you just pick one memory of my brother (I think everyone will agree). But if I had to pick one right now it would be, one Christmas at his house in Avon we were opening gifts and then he opened what I got him it was a photo frame with him making goofy faces. He loved it so that he laughed and cried at the same time. It was sooo funny. So I'll share one of the pics. Bubby I miss you deeply and I will see you again.

Thank you so much. We were talking about Timmy and how they passed the same way. We also can't find canned peppers the way he made them. My brother was a funny person going to miss the laughter with him.
