I have fun memories of Tim as my cousin! Summer vacation with family in Cleveland was always something I loved and we would almost always go to Cedar Point together! I remember all of us meeting at Uncle Gordon's house before going to the park and Tim driving on ahead and making it there way before us! He loved driving fast and being free and having fun! I remember him as a sweet person who always lived another day to see his daughter and son! Heaven couldn't have welcomed a nicer friend....rest in peace and love Tim,,,

You were always there. A great first mate on the water, always good for laughs, generous to fault. 42 years was not near enough. Thank you for being family. I love you brother.
