To All Those who are in a Deep Sorrow in the Passing of Jimmy from this Life to a Heavenly Realm, I was very sad to hear of Damien's son (my cousin Dame) passing, and I send Heartfelt Prayers for the entire family. I read about James, and I am very sure he is in a Heavenly Place and will always be Available for those he loves, as it is written about those we love and lose that "and they shall become as angels. . ." & angels watch over us, and send us messages from God: Our Father, Our Savior, Jesus, the Son, and the Holy Spirit aka Comforter/Teacher/Guide. . .May You Find Comfort in Family and Friends, May You Each and All Find Strength and Courage to Live Your Lives as Jimmy would love to witness from Above. God Bless & Keep All Of You! Donna (Gammalo-of Ben and Marie) Christner.

Dear friends and family of Jim: I met Jimmy at Harvest Christian Church in '95' He helped me in so many ways. He was humble, yet frank, wise beyond his years and always had a listening ear for my woes. I lost touch for a while, but thank God we reconnected over the last 7 or so years. We had many good laughs. He gave me a book "Rediscovering Jesus" that I will treasure greatly. My comfort now is that he is rejoicing with our Lord. Steven Heugel

Jimmy G thank you for being the most kindest, down to earth person I've ever got to know. Thank you for the laughter, the talks we had at work when I was going through a rough time. I'm going to miss are talks about movies and music the most.

We where like two little kids on Christmas morning every time we started to talk about a super hero movie coming out and or when a FFDP album was about to be released. I will never forget those times and that smile you always had. My thoughts and prayers go out to every friend of Jimmy G and the Gammalo family.
