I loved Daniel. He was my best friend for years. We had the most amazing belly laughs together. He was my truest friend. He was there for me through thick and thin and was a true soldier to me. I will forever miss him.

Dan was a gift to everyone. He made a 9 week acquaintance seem like a lifetime friendship..probably because he only met friends. There were no strangers to Dan.But what do we do now that he is not here ? We will miss his chats, subtle, quick witticisms, transparent, honest sharing, trust, compassion, humility and, of course, the rousing, hilarious WI golf games. What do we do now thought? Well, a wise man once said around the year 360: " Those whom we love and lose are no longer where they were, they are now wherever we are." Indeed, there have already been signs that Dan is still with us, rooting for us, encouraging us, and praying for us. But still, he will be missed very much.
