I not only got to enjoy spending summers during grade-school years with Larry, but we also spent our high-school years together at Borromeo. There he was known for his wry sense of humor, which was not unnoticed by the faculty, but he was always respected for his sincerity and scholastic abilities. Larry's Borromeo Brothers are saddened by his passing, and we'll think of him with fond memories and pray for his peaceful repose. Al Pollack

i am blessed to have known Larry as a friend and mentor. I worked with Larry for many years. He was highly intelligent, passionate and an expert at his profession. I still refer to Larry as the LeBron James of my team. Although Larry has passed, his legacy remains in many things that we do at metro. I thank God for allowing Larry and my paths in life to cross. I will always be grateful for the impact you had in my life. Rest in peace my friend.

Larry and I were inseparable growing up on Eleventh Street and attending Holy Cross Elementary School -- riding bicycles, shooting baskets, serving Mass. Our lives then went different ways, but we always had those memories to revisit. Our sympathy to Donna and Larry's family.--Larry Firment

I am so sorry for your loss. Even our Lord Jesus Christ felt the sting of losing a loved one. John 11:33-36. Though I didn't know Larry personally. I know he was loved by many. He will be dearly missed. We all can find comfort in knowing we'll see him again. Revelations 21:3,4.
