Aunt Catherine and George came to North Augusta South Carolina in 2014. They came to watch me graduate Victory Baptist Bible College. I did not know of Aunt Cathy or any of my fathers family! Aunt Cathy and George were the first ones I meet. George who I called Uncle George was so gracious. A special kind giving man. While visiting we went to the Augusta National where the Masters Golf tournament is played. It was locked due to off season but I thought Uncle George would like a picture by the entrance. To our surprise an employee saw us walking back to our vehicle. He drove over to us with a van full of Masters shirts tees etc! Uncle George was so excited! He purchased several things with much joy. Taking back with him a Masters golf flag he created a green in his yard where he placed it proudly! Because of the two of them I met 30 cousins or more in one day! Thank you Uncle George enjoy heaven!!! We will see you again! Faye (Dede) Jameson
