My condolences go out to the Sloboda family, especially to Judi's mother, Lois. I've known Judi for over 20 years. We first met when I came to work for the same company where she was working. Judi and I began fast friends and remained so even after we both left for different jobs years later. Judi was the kind of person who was always honest, had a great sense of humor, and you could always count on if you needed her help or advice. She had a great love for animals which I share with her. We always managed to get together for each others birthdays and Christmas holidays, even when she wasn't feeling all that well. I was so happy that she made it to my daughter's wedding several years ago. I will miss our regular talks and her friendship dearly. I know you are at peace my friend!
