I have fond memories of John Theobald from my earliest days. Though my relationship to him was "first cousin once removed", the yearly Theobald family reunion brought the extended family together for over 50 years, and so I remember seeing him once a year from my earliest days. John was about 6'3", which is tall. But to a small kid, someone of this height is not just tall, but gigantically tall. So this was John Theobald, a giant, vivacious, very much a presence, always connecting and always positive. A treat of the yearly Theobald reunions was the "White Elephant Auction", made memorable by John being the auctioneer. It was such a treat to see him in action. With a good auctioneer, the flow of words is mesmerizing. John was masterful in his delivery. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord. David Wilkins

For Cindy and Lisa Wagner, our trip on an honor flight to the WWII memorial was wonderful. John and the other vets were applauded by strangers they passed all day long. Such a deserving tribute to this veteran, husband, father, brother and uncle. Will always remember with a smile.

For his numerous nieces and nephews he was always someone we could look up to. He was approachable, dignified, insightful, and hilarious. A visit with Uncle John always left you feeling better. We can still feel that way when we think about him.
