Ronald G. Blankenship

SEP 1, 1934 - NOV 30, 2020

Ronald G. Blankenship, age 86, of Grafton, passed away on Monday, November 30, 2020 at University Hospital Elyria Medical Center.

He was born in Garrett Bend, West Virginia and had been a resident of Grafton since 1958.

Ronald worked as a machine technician for General Motors Corporation in Parma for 30 years.

He enjoyed tinkering around the house, gardening, animals, tractors, going to auctions and was a practical jokester. He was also a longtime member of AA.

Survivors include his sons Russell (Amber) of Sheffield, Ronald (Kristy) of Grafton, grandchildren, Wesley, Janelle, Jennifer and Abigail, 11 great-grandchildren, many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Loretta in 2015, son, Timothy Allen Blankenship, parents, Leonard and Elsie Blankenship.

Friends may call Friday, December 4, 2020 from 10 AM until the time of service at 11 AM at Bogner Family Funeral Home, 36625 Center Ridge Rd., North Ridgeville. Rev Daniel Mayle will officiate.

Due to COVID 19, face coverings and proper social distancing will be required.

Burial will be at Resthaven Memory Gardens, Avon.

Ronald ~N~ Loretta have been in my life since the 60's! They weren't my parents, but don't tell them or me that! They both were my rock an foundation for many years! Where I'm @ in my life is due to the loving an caring of the Whole Blankenship family! After the passing of Loretta, Ron an I went on many weekend trips to Auctions an good Grub Spots. He sure loved to eat...I loved hearing ALL his stories, especially of his childhood. He was an will always be my best friend!

The first time I met Ronald was at a Whittington reunion. He was always off to himself. I liked him instantly. He was always himself no matter who he was around. He was a man to be admired. I hoped I would get to see him one more time.
