I will always remeber JoAnne's wit and charm. She stayed wth us for several months when she was nineteen and working in Washington . It was her firset real job. Living in the suburbs with three small boys and a brand new baby can't have been easy, but she handled things with grace and humor.

JoAnne will always be a DQ Day Lady in my mind. Such a great group we had at that store back in the day. And of course, I knew and graduated with Kris too. Deepest sympathies to the entire Miglich family.

I remember Mrs Miglich being at many of Angie's games, always there to support the teams. My sincere sympathy to the family during this time.
