Barbara Rose

DEC 3, 1958 - JAN 17, 2021

Barbara Rose (nee Meade), age 62, of Strongsville, passed away on Sunday, January 17, 2021 at her mother's home in Cleveland.

She was born on December 3, 1958 in Cleveland to Herbert and Rosa Meade and has been a resident of Strongsville for the past 21 years. Barb earned her bachelor's degree at Indiana Wesleyan University and worked at Medical Mutual for more than 20 years.

She was a wonderful, caring person that always put others first. She loved spending time with her family, and her grandchildren were so special to her. Barb was loved by her family and friends and was taken from us way too soon. She will live in our hearts forever.

Barbara is survived by her husband Bruce, her childhood sweetheart whom she married on September 17, 1977; daughter Angela Rose; son Mark Rose; grandchildren Joshua, Matthew, Secili and Mark Jr.; mother Rosa L. (nee Profit) Meade; brothers Herb, Joe and David Meade; sister Ruby (Robert) Settlemyer.

She was preceded in death by her father Herbert Meade.

Family will receive friends in the Bogner Family Funeral Home, 36625 Center Ridge Rd., N. Ridgeville on Thursday from 4-7 p.m. Due to Covid-19, masks and social distancing will be required

When I think of Barb, I have to smile! Barb was always smiling. I never heard a curse word come out of her mouth nor have I ever heard her bad mouth anyone. Barb was a one-of-a-kind! I am so proud of my brother, Bruce for not only finding an angel, but holding on to her. I loved Barb and will always remember her with a smile!!

We were so close. Everyone thought we were twins. We did everything together. She was a kind, sweet person that I will miss so much. My heart is broken. My only comfort is that I will see her in heaven.
