Uncle Jack was a wonderful man with a wonderful family. Growing up, I was always happy when Uncle Jack and family came to visit us in WV. I was able to play with my cousins and enjoy hearing about their life in OHIO. As we got older and had our own families, Uncle Jack would perform magic tricks for the young kids, which they loved. I still remember visiting Aunt Sharma and Uncle Jack in OH and going to Cedar Point. Of course they made us feel welcome. Watching his family grow from two girls to sons-In-law to several grandkids and great grandkids, I could tell Uncle Jack enjoyed his family. Such great memories we all have of Uncle Jack. I pray for comfort for you all. Love and prayers, Beverley Keffer Castanon
