Peggy was a dear friend and neighbor when she and the family lived in Gilbertsville. We had many joyful times with picnics in the back yard on holidays even if it was a bit chilly. I watched our children grow up together. Peggy will be missed by many.

My condolences to Steve, Beth and Bobby and your families. I surely will miss your mom. She and I used to talk periodically and always had a great laugh together. Always loved her sense of humor. Hope she and Uncle Steve are reunited & dancing with everyone who got there first! Love, Bob and Bev Mies and Family
