Dave was a very sweet, kind, and caring man. I enjoyed serving with him in the children's ministry. He shared a baptismal day with my husband and four sons...He will truly be missed!

Dave served people because he believed in Jesus and wanted to be more like him. Dave just had a way of helping you feel so valued and loved. He has undoubtedly heard "well done good and faithful servant!" Our sympathy to his sister, friends and those who will miss his touch in their lives.
