He inspired me to play bass guitar. He always had trouble with bass players in most of his bands. I roadied for alot of his bands growing up. Marcus Pape Robin Armstrong, the band Candy just to name a few. Ron was very loving and went after peace love he percuded it cultivated love. He was always tearing things apart then putting them back together again making them better then before. I will miss him for a short time when we soon are all reunited. God allowed time for us to spend together and I'm grateful for that.

Brother You Will Be Missed. You will fill my Empty Heart with Memories of Good Times, There will always be a part of Me that is Missing. There are no words that will offer comfort in My time of Grieving as the Pain comes and goes....But knowing You are Out of Pain Gives Me some Comfort.... Til We Meet.... Keep Rocking That Stairway to Heaven.

Dear Aileen and the Quarry family, our heartfelt condolences from our family here in the Bay Area. Ron was a very good brother and friend in the Lord Jesus Christ. He had been and will always be a significant part of Living Faith Fellowship and Christ's Community Church. Gifted musician and vocalist, we love all those beautiful moments when he picks up his guitar and plays excellent music to the Lord Jesus. I personally will miss all the fun times of laughter, great and decent jokes about life/everything, the ways he can reflect on the serious meanings of life, the serious thoughts and understanding he has about his faith in Christ. Ron, a hardworking and dedicated father, husband, a dear friend and brother-in-law to Florante, and a caring son to his Mom and siblings. At 65, Ron had a short life. But those years were important enough that brought joy and good influence to everyone he loves, family and friends. We will all miss you Ron. But as we know, you are now in a much better place in the eternal care and glory of our Lord Jesus. As we have learned to say, this is a temporary goodbye. Because in due time, by God's timing, we will play music and sing and fellowship together again in a much longer time. To Aileen and the Quarry family, may the assuring peace and divine comfort from our God of grace and mercy be upon you all. Rest in peace, Ron. ---Pastor Fernando and Vickie del Rosario
