I love you, Grandma! I am sorry I haven't seen you in such a long time. I am glad that you and I got to see and speak with one another before you went to see Jesus. I will always carry the memory of waking up and seeing you on your knees in prayer. Although I was very hungry and had to wait until you were done, lol, you taught me how important prayer was. I remember our days at Rallys and Dennys and me spending the night at your home. I will treasure us watching "Touch by an Angel" together. To this day I still watch it. I am so glad that you are no longer suffering but now whole and complete and in the hands of the Savior. I bet you had an amazing reunion with Uncle Louie and Grandpa. I pray you to get to meet my friend Hannah as well. She loves to dance, and worship and she is a lot of fun. I love you so so much!! Until that day we see each other in glory... Love you and I will serve Jesus with my whole heart and soul
