Arthur H. Palmer

NOV 20, 1940 - JAN 30, 2023

Arthur H. Palmer, age 82, of Wellington, passed away on Monday, January 30, 2023 at his home surrounded by family.

He was born in Bob White, West Virginia and had been a resident of Wellington since 1990, moving from North Ridgeville.

He worked as a polisher and buffer for Kirby for many years, retiring in 1991.

He was a member of Cathedral of Life Church in North Ridgeville and enjoyed working on old cars and trucks, being outside. He was a real handyman and could fix anything.

Survivors include his wife of 60 years, Janet (nee Perrine), children, Art (Sandy) Palmer of Wellington, Stephanie Mangan of Avon, Travis Wachter of Avon, grandchildren, Art (Brandy) Palmer Jr. of Wellington, Eric (November) Palmer of New London, Riley Mangan, Kaylin Mangan, Bennett Wachter, Bryn Wachter of Avon, great-grandchildren, Colton and Wyatt Palmer of Wellington, brother Mike Price of El Paso, Texas.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Gladys (nee Pridemore) Palmer and several brothers and sisters.

Friends may call Friday from 10AM until the time of services at 11AM at Bogner Family Funeral Home, 36625 Center Ridge Road, North Ridgeville. Pastor Terry Murray will officiate.

Burial will be at Resthaven Memory Gardens, Avon.

Memorial contributions are suggested to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital at www.stjude.org

I met mr and mrs Palmer and Art when I was maybe 13 yrs old. They was our neighbors across the street in north Ridgeville. Mr Palmer became our church bus driver. They all became very dear friends to me. He was a good man. You'll be missed mr palmer. Mrs Palmer I am praying for you and art and the rest of the family. So many fond memories of you all. I love you all, love Jamie Dingess
