Oh boy, where to begin. Charlie was a customer, friend, confidant. I met him in 1991 at Abbe Road Beverage. He watched my children grow up, he walked me through good days and bad days. Laughter, giggles, jokes non stop. And tears during some life events. Tears of joy and hardship. All of it! When Ruby was born....she was his little princess! We saw pictures and shared moments about her daily. Charlie was always willing to listen. I am eternally grateful for that. My family has lost a member and he is always present in our hearts. The jokes and laughter will live on with our fond memories. Super blessed to have had him in my life.
