I'm glad I was able to meet and know your father. He clearly was a wonderful loving and faithful man. I know you all will meet him again one day. I am reminded David of our conversations about your dad. The last couple times we spoke it was clear to me that your tenderness and affection toward him was a wonderful tribute to your dad while alive and now in his new life. I will remember him and all of you as you walk through this sad time. Aunt Francy
