Mom, Words will never express the love I had for you. As many times as I screwed up as a kid and the only thing that saved me from dad's wrath was you. Teaching me that life isn't fair and it will be tough. Being the coolest mom in the neighborhood. There is a reason everyone wanted you to be their mom. You will have a lot of people to look out for and keep an eye on. One of your toe F-ing idiots. Wayne

I remember all the parties we used to have in your basement. When you live on Clark Avenue, we had so much fun. And when we went fishing in Norwalk, we were walking down a hill and you fell, but you didn't lose that cigarette after we knew you were okay. We Restart laughing and then a few minutes later I did the same thing. All the Christmas Eve parties that we had at your house we all celebrated so much fun together. I will miss that, but you will forever be in my heart. I love you, big sister.
