Louise Ann Dailey

SEP 16, 1942 - JUL 2, 2025

Louise Ann Dailey (née Orosz) went home to the Lord on July 2, 2025, in North Ridgeville, OH, at the age of 82.

Known to most as “Lou”—or lovingly as “Weez”—she was born in Cleveland, OH, on September 16, 1942. She attended Regina High School in South Euclid, then headed to Dayton, where she graduated from St. Elizabeth’s School of Nursing in 1963. That same year, she married the love of her life, Jim Dailey, and off they went on life’s big adventure. While Jim served in the U.S. Army from 1963 to 1969 in Port Clinton, OH, Lou balanced life as an Army wife and nurse—and quickly added “Mom” to her résumé, with three daughters arriving during those busy years.

After the Army days came what the family affectionately called “the moving years,” as Jim’s job with Union Carbide/Eveready Energizer had them relocating all around northern Ohio—Bay Village, Fremont, North Ridgeville, Avon Lake, Catawba, Sheffield Lake, and Bowling Green.

In 2012, Lou and Jim moved to The Villages, FL, to soak up the sunshine and enjoy their golden years together—dancing in the square, making friends, and spending time with family. After Jim passed away in 2019, Lou moved to Punta Gorda, FL, to be closer to her daughters Kathleen and Karen. In early 2024, she returned to Ohio and was so happy to be back “home,” if only for a little while.

Lou wore many hats in her life—nurse, pastoral assistant (especially helping cancer patients and their families), Montessori classroom aide, caregiver to the retired Sisters of Mercy, and even international volunteer when she traveled to Bosnia in 1996 to support refugee families and orphans. She lived her Catholic faith deeply, wherever life took her, and stayed actively involved in every parish she joined. She was also proud of her Hungarian roots—so much so that she wrote a book about her childhood growing up a Magyar in Cleveland. And as much as she accomplished, she always said her favorite job of all time was being Grandma Weez.

Louise leaves behind her three daughters: Kathleen Meneely (John) and Karen Dailey (Jeff) of

Punta Gorda, FL, and Sue Zimmerman (Keith) of Fremont, OH; her grandsons, Matthew (Cathy) and Nathan (Brittany) Brotzki; and her precious great-granddaughter, Sierra. She is also survived by her dear siblings—Marie Heysek (Bob), Bette Ingraham (Jim), and Bill Orosz (Jan)—along with a large extended family of nieces, nephews, cousins, lifelong friends, and her beloved parakeet, Gracie—all of whom she adored.

She is now reunited with her husband, Jim; her parents, Julius and Lillian Orosz; and her siblings, Lillian and Charles.

A celebration Mass of Louise’s life will be held at St. Julie Billiart Catholic Church

To the family of Louise "Lou" Ann Dailey, Sending thoughts of comfort to you during this difficult time. She was a dearest friend to my mother Marie Wagner, and what a privilege it was to know Lou. I had not too long ago accepted her friend request, and was blessed by her inspiring posts. Your mother touched so many lives. God bless from Marsha Wagner, and son Allan.

We met Weezie through her sister Bette and we enjoyed her visits to our home. Always had a kind word and was fun to be with. I enjoyed the shopping trips to bargain hunt for treasures. Last year she was an added member of our annual potting party. She dug right in and created a lovely container for the window ledge in her apartment. She was unable to join us this year due to her illness, but we pray that she is now resting in peace. Love and sympathy to all her family, Jim and Mary Briggs
