Jeff and Lynn, I'm so sorry to read of your mom's passing. I have often wondered what ever happened to your family since we moved from Fairview a long time ago. I remember spending many hours at your house and playing together and going to ride the trolley and stopping at the drugstore to see your dad. I always miss my Fairview days and have often wondered where everyone is now. I went back to the Eaton Road neighborhood several years ago and most have moved. Oh well enough about me, again so sorry for your loss. Both my parents are gone now and I know the void it leaves in your life. Hope you are both living healthy and happy lives. With deepest sympathy, Sincerely, Barb Crane Rollins
