Going to the Serazins meant getting dirty and muddy in the back yard, kind of intimidating for a shy city girl!. My memories include everything from swinging on the tire swing, wondering how sturdy the bridge was going to be, jumping from hay stacks in the barn across the street, and even getting butted by a baby goat! It was always so neat to see what projects Uncle Frank was working on, and he was always so proud to share his love for whatever it may have been. My sincere love and support to Aunt MaryAnn and all the clan. You are in my prayers.

I know what a Jib is because of Uncle Frank, a small, triangle shaped sail at the front of a sailboat. I always loved the "idea" of going out on his sailboat, and I would enjoy the first 1/2 hour, then I was feeding the fish. Aunt Mary Ann, sorry we will not be able to make it in for the funeral, we are leaving for a vacation on Saturday. Be sure that while I'm taking my windsailing lesson I will be keeping you and Uncle Frank in my thoughts. Love and prayers, Tim, Gail, Paul and Ariel

Aunt Mary Ann and Family, Our condolences to you all. Uncle Frank was a gentleman and a great teacher. I learned so many things from him when we made our family visits back in the day. Sailing, weaving, ship building, the pump organ and great roaring fires are the trademarks of those visits that I will always remember. Unfortunately, Alice and I will be in Chicago this weekend, so we will not be able to attend the service. God Bless you Uncle Frank. Alice and Jim Wiegand
