So sorry to hear of your loss Lee and Brenda. You and your parents lived 2 doors away in Lakewood and I remember your mom as very nice and patient with us crazy kids. When you moved out west, we lost touch. I was doing an internet search when I found this sad news. Of course belated condolences for your father as well, who I also admired. Never forget the world of trouble we got into playing with his military grade walkie-talkie set! Memories of our parents serve us well at our age. Lost my dad in 1971 and my mom made it to 2003 at age '92. We wouldn't be the same without them. My best, Jim

I REMABER THE MANY EVENINGS MRS. COLEMAN WOULD COME TO NICKS WHILE WE WERE WORKING TO SIT AND CONVERSATE WITH US SILLY GILLS THATS HOW IT WOULD SOUND WITH HER GREAT ACCENT. SHE ALWAYS HAD ADVICE FOR ALL OF US. THEN WHEN KELLY HAD HER BABY SHE WAS SUCH A PROUD GRANDMA. SO SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS WILL KEEP ALL OF YOU IN OUR THOUGHTS.

We are so sorry to learn of Renee's passing. She was one of our favorite campers at Country Stage Campground in Nova, Ohio. We enjoyed meeting all her children & camping with them all for several years. Renee always had a kind word for everyone...and we will truly miss her.
