I have been around the Ross family for four years now. I have grew very, very close to Henry. He is just like a father to me. If I ever needed anything he would be one of the first to try his hardest to provide it for me. I worked at his nursing home as a receptionist, and he would sit up there from the time I started working, till the time I left. He would sit there and play games on the computer with me, we would look at cars, and talk and tell stories the whole time. I remember bringing him up coins for the vending machines and bananas every week. He loved my son (his grandson) Tyler and his two boys so much, that's all he had talked about. I really do love this man and I am in shock he's gone. I still hear his electric wheel chair cruising down the nursing home hallways on his way to see me, and realize its my imagination. He has done enough suffering, and is in a better place now.

Henry was a good friend and an excellent father. I was blessed to be given the opportunity to raise my children in a beautiful home, that Henry worked diligently to provide for us. Despite our differences we were good friends. I could always depend on him for anything and so could our sons. He was always there for us. He will be sincerely missed. He is in the arms of our Lord now and will not endure any more pain and suffering. God Bless you Henry Ross.

i did not know Henry from my childhood fore I was so young but then I remember him being at moms a few years back and I could not believe how much he looked like Kenny Rogers to me. I am glad I had time to get to know Henry a little in my adult life and very saddened to hear he has passed. He is home with his momma now and other siblings and in time we will all be with all our loved ones that have passed on. I know your hearts are broke and only time will soften the pain. May God be by the sides of all of you that is close to Henry, God Bless. Cousin Belinda
