I am so sorry for your loss. Your father was a wonderful, loving, giving man. I remember him fondly. I loved his smile, and he always had a joke and made me smile. He is no longer suffering, and has gone on to be with everyone who went before him. What a lovely reunion, and to be restored to his full capacity, in the presence of God. Love to you and to all your loved ones. I will be praying for all of you. With love, Mary Kay
