As Mike's oldest daughter I wanted to say how deeply touched my siblings (Chris, Wayne, Aimee and Leah) and I are by the outpouring of support for our father. The attendance at the church was indicative of how many people loved and cared for him. Many people that day shared with us stories of our dad or recounted memories that they had of him; that meant a lot to us. We appreciate your kindness and take comfort in it at this time.

To Sally, JoAnn and entire Roscoe family. The service held for Mike was the most beautiful we have ever attended. It was simply perfect and we're sure Mike looked down at everyone, smiled and was very pleased. As we witnessed by the many in attendance, he will be truly missed. Sincerely.
