Dear Helen and family, Steve was a wonderful man ... so thoughtful, caring, and gentle. I loved having you, Helen, and Steve in the front row of our SilverSneakers class ... Steve's kind smile made the class even better for me. His thoughtfulness showed itself daily. He was the first one to put away the chairs - always in his quiet, selfless way. His passing leaves a hole in our close-knit group. I will miss him deeply and will remember him with deep-felt affection. Helen - please return to our circle of friends as soon as you can. We are here for you. Let us support you.
