Adeline Hill

APR 18, 1930 - JAN 17, 2010

Adeline M. Hill (nee Eder), age 79, of North Ridgeville passed away Sunday January 17, 2010 at St. John West Shore Hospital following a long illness. She was born in Aliquippa, PA. She had moved to North Ridgeville in 1952 from Cleveland.

Mrs. Hill also had lived in Ripley, West Virginia from 1983-1993.

Mrs. Hill was a patient care assistant at the Lutheran Home, Westlake until retiring in 1973.

She enjoyed bingo and playing games with her grandchildren.

Survivors include daughters, Sharron Campbell of Pickerington, Ohio, Sandy (Joseph) Lanser of North Ridgeville, sons, Dale (Lynette) Hill of Spencer, and Dwight (Diane) Hill of North Ridgeville, 7 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren, brother, Walter Eder of Bedford Heights and Edna Picquet of Pittsburgh.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Wayne in 1993, parents, Fredrick and Martha Eder, and sisters, Marie Strickland and June Musgrove.

Grave side services will be held 12:30PM Thursday at Mount Olive Cemetery, Rock Castle, WV.

Memorial contributions are suggested in the American Diabetes Assoc. 4500 Rockside Road Suite 440, Independence, Ohio 44131.

Arrangements by David Bogner Family Funeral Home 36625 Center Ridge Road North Ridgeville.

Sandy, What I think of most when I think of your mom is how she loved playing yatzee. If someone would play yatzee, she could play all day long! West Virginia is where she would want to be! I wish to offer my condolences to you and your family. Paulette & Larry Ward
