Dear Richley Family, I am so sorry to hear of your loss but I know DorDor is no longer fighting this battle in pain and in her daddy's arms once again. To Judy, it has been long and at time difficult for you. Please take time for yourself now as I know you need it. To Sherrie, Crhis and Denise just know your babysister is at rest. And to Andrea, you have only known your mother to be a fighter so I know you will be one too. Stay strong all of you, Love, Joyce

Dear Judy and family, I was so sad to read about Doreen today. I just talked to her a few weeks ago when she called me at work. I did not realize she was so seriously ill. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your whole family. May God Bless you through this very sad time. Love, Debbie

I am so sorry to hear of this! I will be lifting all of you in prayer to find peace that she is free from pain in a much better place! There is a poem that helped me so much when my husband died 6 years ago and I pray that you will find some comfort in it. I'm free Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard Him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. Oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee. God wanted me now; He set me free! God Bless you all! Love from Georgia.
