I think of you every day Grandma. I hope you are looking down on us from Heaven and being our guardian angel. And I hope you know that it is just not the same without you but we will be together again some day. Thank you for teaching me love and importance of family. I don't think I can ever measure up to being the wonderful grandma you were but I hope I make you proud by trying and using you as an example. I had the best teacher. I love you!

Dearest Grandma, Moments in time, each day passes by Thoughts of you Grandma with tears in my eyes. My mind floods with memories like a river runs wild It long ago started when I was a child. You cuddled me tightly right from the start And as I grew older, drew me close to your heart. Weekends with you, watching you bake Breakfast at sunrise, later some cake. Playing, talking on your couch we sat, Laughing and giggling and making small chat. You're a treasure of gold sent to me from above And your gift to me is the mother I love. Your strength and your faith in times of distress Are like rose petals bound in a book, neatly pressed. Grandma, I love you and on that Great Day I'll see you again and have much to say. I'll hug you, I'll kiss you, I'll take you by the hand. We'll both stand with Jesus upon His Right Hand. We'll sing once again, we'll laugh and we'll smile, But until that day, I'll miss you all the while. But I know that you, in the Garden now stand With Jesus our Lord, holding His Precious hand. Grandma -- I will love you forever and not a day will go by that I will not think about you.

Edith was a very good friend to my Aunt Lillian as well as my parents Bill and Marge Verderber and myself and family. She was always so good to everyone and so fun loving. When I think of Edith I think upon a truly loving, caring woman. May God Bless you all with only the comfort He can bring during this very sad time for you family.

Aunt Edie, we will continue thinking about you and missing you too. We're sure you're having a good time with many, many girls and boys in heaven now. Did you find your chair marked "best cheese cake baker" yet? Heavens gain - our loss. Who will ever forget your smile, great sense of humor and great memories. Your phone calls always made my day too. Our sympathy to Rose Mary, Sharon and Bunny and your great family. There's nothing like a loss of a mom. Love, Carol Jean and Wally

Your mother was my Aunt Lillian Heimberger's neighbor on W. 140th. I remember many happy times that she and my aunt had together. They remained friends until Aunt Lillian passed away several years ago. May your days ahead be filled with fond memories of your mother and may she rest in peace. Gloria Richards (Bittner)
