Dear Erma and Family,We are so sorry for your loss. Jerry has been reminiscing about the years he had known Bill and the many,many, laughs they had shared over time. He was a master mechanic, he could do things with just a screwdriver and a pair of pliers that haven't been invented yet and could win a competition for his baked banana pie and chocolate fudge.Bill will be missed, but kept close to our hearts with the good memories we have.We would have been with you, but both have colds we would not share with you.With our utmost sympathy and sadness,Jerry and Geraldine Banks
