Kimberly Shoobridge

JUL 11, 1985 - NOV 9, 2008

Kimberly E. Shoobridge, age, 23, of North Ridgeville, passed away Sunday, November 9, 2008, at St. John Westshore Hospital, Westlake, following a long illness.

Born in Bloomington, Indiana she was a resident of North Ridgeville for the past 5 years. She previously lived in Austin, Texas.

Kimberly worked as a Pharmacist Technician for CVS at Detroit and Bradley Rd. in Westlake.

She enjoyed Japanese animation, Taekwondo, Aikido, singing with the high school choir and playing the flute in the marching band at Cedar Park High School, Austin, Texas.

Survivors include her parents, Rich and Kathy Shoobridge of North Ridgeville; sister, Vanessa (James) McWhirter of Starkville, Mississippi; grandparents, Robert and Martha Jane Shoobridge of Greenwood, Indiana; several aunts, uncles and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her infant sister, Deborah Elaine Shoobridge; grandparents, Artie and Elmer Foster.

Memorial calling hours will be held on Wednesday, November 12, 2008 from 11:00 AM until 1:00 PM at the David Bogner Family Funeral Home, 36625 Center Ridge Road, North Ridgeville.

Memorial contributions may be made to Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, 23297 Commerce Park, Beachwood, OH 44122.

I feel especially awful. I had promised Kim money for a new video game and didn't get to send it in time. I wanted her to have something new to play to keep her occupied. Her struggles to breathe were heart wrenching to read about. She was very special to us on the LLS board. May she rest in peace. She loved her dogs so much; I hope they will continue to be loved and cuddled as she would want them to be. So sorry, Kim. Julindy

Dear Family of AMI^, I also met Kim on the LLS board. She amazed me by her strength to carry on despite her pain. I am not to much older than her, and I grew to espically feel a caringness for her. I went home this week, I too am from Indiana, to celebrate my Mom's 100 day post SCT. My prayers are with you all and Kim's sister, whom she shared with us on the board that she cherished! God Bless you Kim!!! www.caringbridge.org/visit/welovebevSincerely, Nicole

I met Kim two years ago, she was dx'd with the same cancer as my son at the same age and on the same day. She preceded my son to transplant by a few months. She was always so encouraging and supportive. It saddens me to know she beat the "beast" and the chemo side effects hurt her the most. We have lost so many warriors to this horrific disease, Kim will always be remembered by me and my son as one of those warriors...My deepest and sincerest sympathies to her mom, dad and sister Vanessa, she spoke of you often with much love.

To Kimberly's Parents & Sister.I don't know what to say really... I'm terribly sorry for your loss. I just got an email from a friend and I feel like I've had the wind knocked out of me. I'm the guy who sent her the white roses when she was in the hospital. I talked to her quite often up until around 6 months ago. This, to me, is like living the worst nightmare ever! You want to wakeup but can't... I'm sorry if I'm not making much sense it's just that I'm in shock still. I really loved her and very much enjoyed the time we spent talking. I've talked to Vanessa also on MSN. Kim really made me smile but now there's just sadness. Even while writing this I still don't want to believe it's true..I can't keep the tears in as thousands of thoughts running through my mind. Where ever you are Kim I love you very much and always will. I guess the only positive thing I can take comfort in is that you are no longer suffering. There isn't a day that goes by that I don't think of her... I still don't want to believe it..... I'm so sorry!
