There are no words to describe the love I feel for my Grandma. She was everything good. She was loving, caring, generous, kind, forgiving and understanding. I have never felt more loved and understood than when I was with her. I will always cherish the memories with her, tanning in the sun together, Christmas parties, late night movies, dancing to Bobbie Brown at my wedding reception, shopping for clothes, yard sales, and all the great talks we'd have. I will miss that the most. My Gram was a living example of a true Child of God. She inspired all who knew her. It is because of Gram I have such a wonderful mother, because she too carries a lot of what made my Gram so special. And if I am anything good...it is because I have been blessed to have had them in my life. Thank You Gram for Loving me. - Cindy

Grandma, To this day I don't think I have met a more caring person. You were so strong; Your heart was SO BIG, there was always room for anyone. Our "girls nights" at your house were always fun without a doubt, but as I grew older I realized how important they really were as to who I became as a person. The life values you instilled in my youth will be with me forever, as will your memory. I am truly blessed to have had someone as beautiful as you in my life. Thank you so much for all that you've taught me, and thank you for all of your love. Without it, I don't know where I would be today. I hope next time we meet up and talk, I can tell you a story or two about the lives I have changed as well....Love Always, Your Great Granddaughter
