Misty sent a virtual gift in honor of Richard.

Richard was like the brother I never had. Remembering our early years of clothesline tents, softball games and snow tubing (before the hillside was carved out for the LH Sr High athletic field) to our own children playing together...I loved him and how he made an "event" of everything he was part of. His light has not gone out, he left us each a piece of it.

To my Dad that I loved so much, I wish I could tell you that I'm sorry. Sorry I wasn't there for you when you needed me, sorry I didn't call more often, but most of all I'm sorry I wasn't brave enough to tell you about Jesus! I figured you would make fun of me or just ignore me. Since you've been gone my relationship with God has gotten stronger. I should thank YOU for that. Losing you made me realize I wanted to live my life differently! I don't want to follow in the footsteps of someone so self-destructive. People saying you're in a better place are only fooling themselves. But then again only God knows for sure. I'm not sad anymore and I don't grieve anymore, not because my love for you is less than others but because I love God more.

To my brother who I will miss more than words could say. I have been away from the family for many years but you have always kept me close and I will always do the same for you now and forever that you are in the arms of an angel now and somehow I will find peace in that. I am so sad that you have left us so soon. You were and always will be a great big brother. You have helped me get through so many things and I wanted to tell how much that meant to me. I am proud to be your baby sister. I love you.

To my Brother...I am so sad without you here. I miss you more and more with every day that passes. I know you are in good hands but that does little to ease my sadness. You must know how you have touched so many people. For that alone, I am proud to say that you are my Brother. I love you.
