I thank God that He allowed me to know you. You had wit, humor, charm, warmth, honesty and lots of class. That sparkle in your eye. That fire in your spirit. All wrapped up in such a pretty package! Thank you, God, for blessing my life with Karen's friendship. I know we'll all be together again someday. Until then, I ask you to lift up Karen's family and loved ones and give them comfort and peace.

Dear Tammy, Carmen, Jennifer, Keri and family, It has been such a long time since I have spoken with any of you. It was such a shock to flip through the paper and see your Mom's smiling face in the obituaries. I just hope you all can get comfort in knowing that your Mom will live on through you and her grandchildren. I know nothing can help with the pain and loss you are all feeling now, but my thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Christie Wilczynski & Kelly Crawford
