William J. Kerner, Sr. posted:

To Judy Ann, Nancy Kay, Susan Wesley, and family, I offer you my sincere condolences on your mother's sudden passing. I had the occasion to assist her two years ago in finishing up some probate work begun by Dale Barnard, and I enjoyed her reminiscences about her days at the old Saddle Inn and Aquamarine - especially regarding my long deceased father in law, Houston Scoggin. I will remember her as friendly and fun, a very nice lady. Please feel free to call (933-6461) if you have questions or need assistance in settling Pat's legal affairs. I will be back in the office Monday and can shed some light on her probate position when we last met. Again my sympathies, William Kerner.
