Dear Steve & Family, Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. I found a poem that may help you through this very difficult time. My thoughts are with you. God Bless, Bill Chambers I find an old photograph and see your smile. As I feel your presence anew, I am filled with warmth and my heart remembers love. I read an old card sent many years ago during a time of turmoil and confusion. The soothing words written then still caress my spirit and bring me peace. I remember who you used to be the laughter we shared and wonder what you have become. Where are you now, Where did you go, When the body is left behind and the spirit is released to fly? Perhaps you are the morning bird singing joyfully at sunrise, or the butterfly that dances so carelessly on the breeze or the rainbow of colors that brightens a stormy sky or the fingers of afternoon mist delicately reaching over the mountains or the final few rays of the setting sun lighting up the skies edging the clouds with a magical glow. I miss your being but I feel your presence, In whatever form you choose to take, however you now choose to be. Your spirit has become for me a guardian angel on high guiding, advising, and watching over me. I remember you. You are with me and I am not afraid. -Anon**

Steve Don't grieve her, for now she's free. She's following the path God has laid you see. She took his hand when she heard Him call, She turned her back and left it all. She could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. She found that peace at the close of the day. If her parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joys, a friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. On yes, those things she too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. Her life's been full, she savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps her time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee. God wanted her now! He set her free!
