“ Dustin and I had been close friends while working together at NRG. When I spent my weeks, months, and years with him he never missed an opportunity to boast about his family. He talked about Morgan and her success with soccer, college, and her long term boyfriend (which he was proud of). He was proud of Sydney and Luke for how smart and well they were doing in school and told me they would both end up shining because of their upbringing. He was very proud that all three of his children were brilliant, and was never shy to share that fact. He loved his children and expressed it daily with stories about them and talking about their times together. He also loved his parents greatly. He spoke of his father Dan frequently. From advice, to cutting grass, to fixing the plumbing on Greenwood, he loved talking about his dad. He loved his mother a lot. He loved and laughed at how she cringed at his adult jokes and comments. His brothers and nephews were also a favorite. He loved you all. Happy about the jobs you have, straightening up for some, he loved you! Last but not least, and hard to type this. Julie, he was proud of how well you raised those kids. Something I heard on a regular basis. God bless all. Sorry for your loss.

“ Eric I just found out about Dusty. I am saddened by his passing. He was a good man and an one of the hardest workers I had ever known that I supervised. His laughter, smile and love of his family will forever resonate with me.

“ To the whole Wade Family, I am so sorry for your terrible loss! Since we were young Dusty meant the world to me! I adored him for many years! I will cherish all of our memories forever! As adults we remained friends and I got the privilege of knowing his children and all the love he had for them! I promise to always remind them of that! I will love and remember Dusty always!

“ Hello,my name is Brian Taylor and I worked with Dustin at Morton Salt. Dustin hired in as a Pipefitter in the 2007 I believe. Dustin and I worked a lot of hours together and became close friends. I`m more than a few years older and Nug (Dustin)would share the trials of his life with me,both good and bad. I own an old GTO convertible and we would go have beers after work. I would scare the shit outta him by power drifting around corners, One winter his Cadillac needed front wheel bearings, There was two feet of snow in my back driveway that had to be cleared to enter the garage. He helped me shovel every heavy,wet foot of it. He became Steelworkers Local 12081 president after working there a very short time. Dustin wanted to help those who needed it most. He packed a lot of passion for living in those 41 years and I`m proud to have known him as a friend. The kind of friend who would stand with you back to back when your surrounded. In a muddy trench with rain running down cracks of our asses and laughing about how screwed we are today. I had texted him in July to say we needed to get together for some suds and he said"hell yeah". I guess I`ll have to wait for awhile but he is buying this time. Keep a stool open Nug. Until then Adios brother.

“ I'm so saddened to learn of Dusty's passing. I can only imagine this amazing and close-knit families' heart felt loss. I always think of Dusty's smile and laugh when I think of him. Now, I hope I never forget it. I have wonderful childhood memories tied to summer visits by the Wade family. Dustin, undoubtedly, was somebody I couldn't wait to see each summer when school got out. To the Wade family, please accept our deepest condolences. Our Love and support to your family, Shane and Allison Cook
