“ I am Roshan and my wife Shalitha deeply miss our family friend Isabel. We got introduced to Isabels family in Immaculate conception church in Columbus in 2011. Thereafter we have shared wonderful memories until now. Her charming smile, strong determination and deep devotion influenced our life. We always saw her as a role model and mentor as there was no barrier between us about the things we discussed. Until 2015 we got to celebrate many birthdays together with her. We spent hours talking to each other and interaction with her always refreshed our life. We have also visited her home in Elyria and wonderful time with her family. She was brave to drive in winter from Columbus to Elyria which is always inspirational memory for me. She has given loads of love to my son Christino and finally when we moved from Columbus in 2015 both Isabel and John took then 5 yr old Christino to movie and playtime on their own. Our heartfelt condolences to John, Dilip, Deepu, Katie and family.

“ Dear Isabel was a brave and very feisty soul who shared her spiritual thoughts with me over the years.

As first cousins, we only rediscovered each other following the funeral of my mother in 2009 when the Louis family generously came over from America to pay their respects. It was much appreciated then and remains so.

Our extended group spent a good few pleasurable hours in Plymouth, visiting historical sites and enjoying each other's company. That is the memory I will keep with me, sitting on the grass looking over towards Drake's Island. A calm, warm and gentle memory.

Everlasting peace be upon your soul, dear Isabel. Strength and love to John, Deepu and Dilip.

“ I am Celine from India cousin sister of Isabel. Not only my relative we did BSc in Holy cross college during which time she was critically ill. She got 2nd phase of her life during that time. Her faith in God and determination to fight back during that period is something I couldn't forget. Her fragile health never was a hindrance in her studies and career. She confronted many more difficult situations with same faith and evergreen smile in her face. My only regret is I failed to communicate with her during last visit to India.

Celine Regina - January 21 at 11:10 PM

“ ImAunty Angela , younger sister of JASeshadri, mother of Isabel JH Louis. Being born in India and lived with us during her life time in India, I appreciate her strong faith in Our Lord though she had many obstacles, hospitalizations and losses. She accepted them with obedience to God's will and thus gained from God , the courage to sustain and to win crownly abode in Eternity.

Celine Regina - January 21 at 10:56 PM

“ I, Inbaraj an uncle of Isabel is an admirer of her forthright views on many occasions. She was a person who wanted peace among the relatives. I can rightfully call her a Torch Bearer of Peace of Christ Our Lord. She readily forgave those who wronged her and family. Isabel is an Apostle of Peace & Love. I pray that The Almighty God grant her eternal rest in His Kingdom. May He also console the bereaved family members John, Dilip, Depu, and Kathy & all the friends. Lord have mercy on us all.
