“ John was our neighbor and friend. He was quiet, but always willing to help anyone of us who needed him. He was a humble perfectionist, and took such pride in his work. We often saw him working in their beautiful yard and home, mowing, trimming, planting and pruning until everything was perfect. He was so proud of his home and family, and he will be missed so much.
Cindy, we are so sorry for your loss. Please know that you and your family are in our constant prayers, and we are here for you for whatever you need.
